Oasis Series in the Heart of the City Evening Services of Music and Prayer to Nourish the Justice-Seeking Soul

Saturday, September 11, 2010, 5pm
New Beginnings with special guest dub poet and reggae artist Michael St. George

Join us this fall on the second Saturday of each month for music services with a justice theme. Each month we will gather together for readings, musical offerings, congregational singing, reflections and actions based on a particular justice theme with a special musical guest. Services begin at 5pm and are followed at 6 by a reception and information sharing related to the justice theme of the day.

Saturday, September 11th at 5pm: New Beginnings with special guest dub poet and reggae artist Michael St. George. The following services will be on Oct 9 and Nov 13.

Worship Coordinators:

Jennifer Henry, Becca Whitla

Holy Trinity Mission Statement: We are a community of people who seek to express the Christian faith through lives of integrity, justice and compassion, fostering lay leadership, compassion, welcoming the doubter and the marginalised, and challenging oppressive social structures wherever they may be found.
